

2013 SMSA Executive Committee Elections

We will need to elect three Regional positions (Western, Central and Eastern Regional Representatives) and one Supporting Member position in 2013 SMSA election.

Elections are done by ballot prior to the 2013 Member Business Meeting on August 23, 2013. There will be no elections at the Annual Business Meeting.

Regional Representatives are elected by the state members in each region.

The Supporting Member is elected by the Supporting Members.

If you are interested in serving on the SMSA Executive Committee as a Regional Representative or Supporting Member Representative, please submit the attached Intention to Serve on the Executive Committee form to the SMSA Business Office at office@smsa.org by June 1, 2013.

If you would like to nominate someone for one of these positions, please contact that person before making the nomination so they are aware of your plans. Individuals running for a position on the Executive Committee need to obtain approval from their organization to run for and accept a position on the SMSA Executive Committee.

All three Regional Representatives and the Supporting Member Representative will serve a two year term starting August 2013 and ending August 2015.

Individuals running for a Regional Representative position must be the designated voter from a state in the region. The states in each region are listed below.
