Any thoughts on a good place to buy helmets? We need about 100 of various sizes.

You might check with <http://www.motorcycle-superstore.com/> Their prices are usually pretty good.

We've been going to Soaring Helmet Corp/VEGA Helmet out of Washington for several years. They've given us very good pricing. They'd be worth checking with.

Interesting timing-a rep from Bell helmets just stopped by our office today and chatted with our Statewide Site Manager. I'm not sure what kind of bargains he has to offer, but he seemed enthusiastic to get our business. In the past, we have ordered helmets directly from Western Power Sports at very good prices. I can have our Statewide Site Manager, Marc Santoro, contact you directly if you'd like further details.

This website lists lots of companies that offer discounts to MSF coaches and organizations. There are several helmet manufacturers on the list, and some of the listings include rep and contact info:
