Nevada PSA

Below was sent to me from our marketing partner/vendor. Thought you'd like to see the Public Service Announcement that was created by Fox TV. As part of our DRVSAFE sponsorship, Fox Reno, Nevada has produced a PSA for Motorcycle Safety. They did this on their own as they usually do, but with direction on main message points from us per our campaign. Here is the link to the video:

I like it. It is quick, gets the message out, has young folks talking safety (which their peer's respect). I forwarded a link to my state's highway safety office and motorcycle safety task team. Nice job, Pete.
