OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

Instructors, friends and colleagues,

A unique opportunity awaits qualified candidates to vie for the Director's position of the TEAM OREGON Motorcycle Safety Program at Oregon State University. The finalist will inherit a strong, caring and capable team.

They are a special troupe, capable of handling immense challenges with grace and class.

Reference this posting <http://jobs.oregonstate.edu/postings/22231> to identify the position summary, duties and required qualifications. Cheryl Bond (Cheryl.Bond@oregonstate.edu) and Pat Hahn (Pat.Hahn@oregonstate.edu) are the search panel co-chairs. Feel free to contact either of them with any questions you may have.

This is a great opportunity! If you or someone you know has the pedigree and passion to lead this organization, I urge you/them to apply.

I'll see you on the road and range. Be careful out there.

OREGON

I hope that the new ED has half the vision and charisma as the old guy did!

~Emile Amarotico

OHIO

Gee, Steve, did you staff give you permission to retire?

OREGON

Good morning -

I'm thrilled and honored to announce the appointment of Aria Minu-Sepehr to the position of TEAM OREGON Director. Aria has spent a lifetime preparing for this moment, from his time under his dad's tutelage in Iran, to his struggles and awakening in his new home. You'll find Aria's approach to leadership to be calm, collaborative, nurturing and insightful. TEAM OREGON is in good hands under Aria's watch. He'll assume duties July 1.

Please join me in welcoming Aria to this position, and this time.
Congratulations, my friends.

OHIO

Welcome aboard, Aria!
If Ohio can be of assistance, let us know. Looking forward to meeting you in September in Oregon.

TOTAL CONTROL

Congrats Aria from everyone here at CMSP and Total Control Training. We look forward to continuing to work collaboratively with our good neighbor to the north.
